PRELIMINARY

This contract governs the general and the particular conditions of Travel International Assistance program issued by the insurance company.

DEFINITION

- Act of terrorism means an act (which may include using force or violence) by any person or group, committed for political, religious, ideological or similar purposes, with the aim of influencing any government or to put the public, or any section of the public, in fear. Robberies or other criminal acts mainly committed for personal gain and acts arising mainly as a result of personal relationships will not be considered as an act of terrorism. Act of terrorism also includes any act which is confirmed by the relevant government as an act of terrorism. Using nuclear, chemical or biological substances or weapons will also be considered an act of terrorism.
- Accident or accidental means a sudden, unexpected event which happens during the period of insurance which must be the only cause of injury or damage to the insured, whichever applies.
- Certificate of insurance/ policy means the document which proves that you have insurance cover, listing among other things, details of everyone insured, the plan and the period of insurance covered under this policy.
- Close Family Members means 1st degree relatives (parents, full siblings, or children).
- Common Carrier means any public transport by road, rail, sea or air with a licensed carrier operating a regular and/or charter passenger service.
- Country of Residence means the country where you are permanently residing or where you are temporarily residing for a period of more than three months at the date of issue of the insurance, and to where you will be repatriated if medically necessary.
- Deductible means the first amount of each claim, for each separate accident, payable by the insured. Excess/Deductible amounts are shown in the Table of Benefits.
In the event that you make a claim under more than one Section of the insurance the deductible will be applied to each Section.
- Family cover means covering under the same policy:
  - One adult or two adults who are husbands, wives or partners at the time of buying the policy; and
  - Covering any number of their children
- Insurance Company means the company with whom the insurance policy is held who will bear the risk/ expenses with the insured in case of an eligible claim occurrence as per policy's General conditions and Table of Benefits.
- Insured / you/ your means an individual named in the certificate of insurance who is insured under an insurance policy issued by the insurance company.

- Natural disaster means any event or force of nature such as earthquake, tsunami, volcanic eruption, flood, typhoon or hurricane that has catastrophic consequences in terms of financial, environmental or human losses. Bad weather conditions that cause little or no effect on financial, environmental or human loss will not be considered as natural disaster.
- Outpatient medical expense means the medical expense (as stated in the Table of Benefits) needed to treat an injury or sickness, where the insured can get treatment from a medical practitioner or a specialist and he does not need in hospital confinement.
- Pre-Existing Condition Any health condition or impairment medically existing, which has developed overtime prior to enrollment whether known or unknow, treated or not. The preexisting medical condition definition also applies to injury or sickness of the family member.
- Public transport means any regularly scheduled aircraft, bus, ferry, hovercraft, hydrofoil, ship, train, tram or underground train which has fixed and established routes and is operated by a licensed carrier or operator to transport fare-paying passengers.
- Serious Medical Condition means a condition, which in the opinion of the servicing company constitutes a serious medical emergency requiring urgent remedial treatment to avoid death or serious Impairment to the Insured's immediate or long-term health prospects. The seriousness of the medical condition will be judged within the context of the Insured's geographical location, the nature of the medical emergency and the local availability of appropriate medical care or facilities.
- Servicing/ Assistance Company means the company appointed to provide various emergency assistance services for the purpose of supplying the Benefits/Services/Covers of this policy on the Insurer's behalf if the claim is eligible.

- Sum Insured means the maximum aggregate payable for each insured under each section of this insurance as specified in the Table of Benefits.

GEOGRAPHICAL SCOPE OF SERVICES & COVERAGE

- The geographical scope of services and coverage is limited only to outside the Usual Country of Residence; all treatments for a covered case are not covered in the insured's Usual Country of Residence. After the policy expires, all follow up treatments and investigations related to a covered case, are not covered during the insured's stay outside or inside his Usual Country of Residence.
- The Services provided by the servicing company under this Agreement are rendered on a worldwide basis. The servicing company shall use its best endeavors to provide the Services but any help and intervention depends upon, and is subject to local availability and has to remain within the scope of national and international law and regulations and intervention depends on the servicing company obtaining the necessary authorizations issued by the various authorities concerned.

The servicing company shall not be required to provide Services to the Insured/s, who in the sole opinion of the servicing company is located in areas which represent war risks, political or other conditions such as to make such Services impossible or reasonably impracticable.

SCOPE OF SERVICES/COVERAGE

- The servicing company shall make available operations coordinators answering in different languages for the Users by telephone at its fully-manned non free call alarm center available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- When the servicing company has the information immediately available, the servicing company shall provide the Services, as appropriate, to the Insured while the Insured is on the telephone. In all other cases, the servicing company will provide the information to the Insured by the quickest possible means.
- The servicing company shall, subject to the terms and conditions as defined hereunder, provide the following Services to a Insured calling the servicing company.
- If claim is eligible, the client will be covered under usual, customary, necessary and reasonable costs for a maximum Aggregate limit as per Table of Benefits.

Medical Expenses

• Emergency medical evacuation

The servicing company will arrange for the air and/or surface transportation, communication and all usual and customary ancillary services incurred in moving and transporting the Insured when in a Covered Medical Condition to the nearest hospital where appropriate medical care is available.

The servicing company through its medical team reserves the right, to determine the location to which the Insured will be evacuated and the means or method by which such evacuation or repatriation will be carried out. In making such arrangements, the servicing company may consider all relevant circumstances including, but not limited to the Insured's medical condition, the degree of urgency, the Insured's fitness to travel, airport availability, weather conditions and travel distance in determining whether transportation will be provided by private medically equipped aircraft, helicopter, regular scheduled flight, rail or land vehicle.

• Emergency medical repatriation

The servicing company will arrange for the return of the Insured to the Home Country or Usual Country of Residence by air and/or surface transportation following an in-hospital admission for a covered case.

The servicing company through its medical team reserves the right to decide the means or method by which such repatriation will be carried out having regard to all the assessed facts and circumstances of which the servicing company is aware at the relevant time, subject to The Insurance Company prior approval and only when judged necessary on medical and compassionate grounds.

• Transportation of mortal remains

The servicing company will arrange for transporting the Insured's mortal remains from the place of death to the Home Country if requested by a family member or legal representative.

• Medical expenses incurred during hospitalization

In the event of sudden illness or injury of the adherent occurring outside the usual country of residence, insured has to call the assistance party prior to his admission.

The Servicing Company will guarantee the direct payment of the medical expenses incurred during hospitalization, up to the maximum limit stated in the schedule of benefits for the treatment of an injury or sickness sustained by the insured while his policy is in effect considering that cases are:

- Not due to any preexisting condition,
- Within the scope of policy particular and general condition,
- Not excluded as per policy particular and general exclusions,
- As per the usual reasonable and customary charges,
- Covered under Regular/ Standard Admission Class.

a. Inpatient care

b. Emergency care

An Emergency is a treatment which may not be delayed due to sudden covered sickness or accident and which requires confinement to a hospital emergency room considering the admission is not due to any preexisting condition.

c. Deductible (applicable for Emergency and Inpatient Care)

Deductible means the first amount of each claim, for each separate accident, payable by the insured. Excess/Deductible amounts are shown in the Table of Benefits.

Deductible / Excess	Amount
1D - 18 years	$100
19 years -70 years	$100
71 years -75 years	$300
76 years - 80 years	$500

• Medical expenses due to Covid-19

This policy will cover the user for reasonable usual and customary (UCR) medical costs and expenses under Regular/ Standard Admission Class which may be incurred consequent to the user’s becoming infected with COVID-19 disease, while this policy is in force, but only in respect of In-hospital confinement provided that:

- For the purpose of this clause, COVID-19 disease shall be defined as a general and widespread sudden outbreak of an acute and severe infectious disease caused by Corona Virus as per the World Health Organization.
- Usual, reasonable and customary (UCR) is defined as treatment consistent with generally accepted standards of medical practice, procedures, and surgeries in destination country, in accordance with the Ministry of Health and the National Social Security guidelines for normal, usual & customary procedure and/or standard health sector practice.
- In Hospital confinement refers to any treatment that cannot be undergone under the Out of-Hospital services and is recommended by a recognized treating physician. Such confinement must be medically indicated by the treating Physician to diagnose or treat COVID-19 disease covered under this Policy.
- ICU/Severe: these cases need admission to ICU with intubation and respirator, and the average length of stay is 25 days.
- Step Down/Moderate Cases: these cases need admission to intensive care with isolation, but no intubation and no respirator. Usually it needs 14 days average length of stay.
- Ward/ Mild cases: if admitted to hospital, needs isolation with an average length of stay of 2 days for any new policies issued by the Insurance Company for the new Policyholder and/or Insured

The “medical expenses” benefits provided under our plan can be claimed if COVID-19 is suspected or detected. In this particular context, “experimental” treatments, meaning medically-prescribed treatments being tested by doctors to treat this disease, will of course be covered as no cure has yet been found.

The cover is granted:

- If the person got infected by corona virus during his stay at the stated country, after presenting a positive PCR result.
- If the destination airport requires a mandatory PCR on arrival, then the person should present a negative PCR in order to be covered. If the PCR test is not mandatory, 72 hours waiting period is required.

•Quarantine Expenses due to Covid-19

If the insured, after a positive PCR test, was sent to compulsory quarantine while the policy is in force, an amount of cash will be provided to the insured as stated in the schedule of benefits for each complete 24 hours of quarantine up to a maximum of 14 days upon providing the extra paid invoices for accommodation and meals for reimbursement.

The amount is paid on top of any of the insured’s existing medical benefits.

No benefits will be paid once the insured has left the quarantine outside his usual country of residence and if the treatment of the illness is not a direct or indirect consequence of Covid-19 disease.

Travel Expenses

• Luggage Loss

The guarantees relating to luggage and personal possessions that belong to the users will be provided according to the conditions set out below.

The Insurance Company will supplement the compensation in the event of the insured suffering a total loss of baggage that has been checked by an International Airline for an International flight. This includes compensation for the clothing and the personal effects which are stored in the personal baggage that is lost.

The minimum period of time that must elapse for the luggage to be considered been lost once and for all will be that stipulated by the carrier company, with a minimum of 21 days.

In all cases, the original certificate of the carrier or complaint, reporting the occurrence of the loss/accident must be furnished.

The Company shall not be responsible for:

- Partial loss or damage to checked baggage.
- Wear, tear and depreciation of the article.
- Claims for valuable or fragile articles in checked baggage.

- Claims arising from detention, delay or confiscation by customers or other officials.
- Claims on items for which the insured has already been reimbursed by the Airline or another party.
- Claims on loss of business goods or samples or equipment of any kind.
- Money, jewelry, debit and credit cards, any type of missing documents/ items is excluded from this guarantee.

• Luggage Delay

In case the insured's registered luggage is temporarily lost during his trip and if not delivered within the 4 hours of his destination arrival and the insured had to buy essential items (clothes, toothbrush, etc...) the Insurance Company will reimburse the essential items limited to clothing and toiletries not exceeding US$250 any one item, bought, upon presentation of the invoices.

A written formal document should be obtained from the aviation company confirming the number of hours in respect of luggage delay and the retrieved date.

Exclusion Applicable to This Section:

- Losses or deterioration due to delay
- If legal authorities detained the luggage.
- Trip scheduled to an unstable country if war is declared or not.
- Delay occurring while the insured is in the return trip to the usual country of residence.

• Trip Cancellation

The Insurance Company shall indemnify the insured in respect of any irrecoverable (from any others sources) and unused travel fare, accommodation expenses and/or other pre-paid charges which have been paid in advance or contracted to be paid and for which the insured is legally liable, in the event, the insured has to necessarily and unavoidably cancel the insured trip before the commencement date of the insured trip as a result of any of the following:

- Death, sudden admission to the hospital of the insured person, or his close family members due to a non-preexisting condition which necessitates hospital stay for at least 2 nights.
- Accidental Injury that results in medically imposed restrictions as certified by a Physician at the time of Loss preventing your participation in the Trip. A Physician must advise to cancel the Trip on or before the Scheduled Departure Date;
- The insured's redundancy for which a proper redundancy notice has been supplied by the insured's employer in respect of permanent employment, and which qualifies for payment under current legislation of the insured's Country of Residence.
- Witness summons, jury service or compulsory quarantine of the insured (positive PCR result must be presented).
- Accidental and serious damage to the insured person's place of residence or business in the country of residence arising from fire, flood or burglary within seventy-two (72) hours before the departure date of the planned insured trip which requires the insured person's presence in the country of residence on the departure date of the insured's trip for the purpose of police investigation.

• Trip Curtailment

The Insurance Company shall indemnify the insured, in the event, the insured has to necessarily and unavoidably cut his insured trip short as a result of any of the following:

- Death, sudden admission to the hospital of the insured person, or his close family members (Parents, Spouse, Children and siblings) due to a non-preexisting condition which necessitates hospital stay for at least 2 nights.
- Witness summons, jury service or compulsory quarantine of the insured.
- Accidental and serious damage to the insured person's place of residence or business in the country of residence arising from fire, flood or burglary within seventy two (72) hours after the departure date of the planned insured trip which requires the insured person's presence in the country of residence after the departure date of the insured trip for the purpose of police investigation.

The following exclusions apply to Trip Curtailment and Trip Cancellation:

Any loss directly or indirectly arising from:

- Any circumstances leading to the cancellation or curtailment of the insured trip which is existing, or announced before the insurance period.
- If the purpose of the insured trip is to obtain medical treatment or the insured trip is undertaken against the medical practitioner's recommendation.
- Any medical condition or other circumstances known to have existed before the insurance period.
- Government's regulations control or act, bankruptcy, liquidation, error, omission or default of any travel agency, tour operator, public common carrier and/or other provider of any service forming part of the booked itinerary.
- Failure to notify the travel agency, tour operator, public common carrier and/or other provider of any service forming part of the booked itinerary of the need to cancel or curtail the travel arrangement immediately when it is found necessary to do so.
- Any loss in relation to cancellations or curtailments to schedules that is not verified by the airline, travel agency or other relevant organizations.
- Any loss which will be paid or refunded by any existing insurance scheme, government program, public common carrier, travel agent or any other provider of transportation and/or accommodation.
- Any expenses incurred for services provided by another party for which the insured person is not liable to pay and/or any expenses already included in the cost of a scheduled insured trip.
- Any loss if the insured person refuses to follow the recommendation of a medical practitioner to return to the country of residence, or refuses to continue the insured trip whilst the insured person's physical condition at the time of recommendation is fit for travel (applicable to curtailment of trip only.)
- The insured person's unwillingness to travel.
- The insured person not checking in on time unless due to adverse weather conditions at the country of residence.
- Compensation for frequent flyer points or similar loyalty schemes.
- Known or unknown pregnancy of the insured person.
- Failure to obtain the required passport, visa or necessary travel documentation.
- Any loss not substantiated by a written medical report from the medical practitioner.
- Any loss not substantiated by a written confirmation or cancellation invoice from the Public common carrier and/or accommodation and lodging provider and/or unused travel ticket.
- Any loss not substantiated by a written confirmation from a suitable authority confirming the need to curtail the insured trip due to being summoned as a witness in a court of law, or the insured's place of dwelling being flooded or robbed.

• Flight Delay

• Telephone medical advice

The servicing company will arrange for the provision of medical advice to the Insured over the telephone.

• Medical service provider referral

The servicing company shall provide to the Insured, upon request, the name, address, telephone number and, if available, office hours of physicians, hospitals, clinics, dentists and dental clinics (collectively "Medical Service Providers"). The servicing company shall not be responsible for providing medical diagnosis or treatment. Although the servicing company shall make such referrals, it cannot guarantee the quality of the Medical Service Providers and the final selection of a Medical Service Provider shall be the decision of the Insured. The servicing company, however, will exercise reasonable care and diligence in selecting the Medical Service Providers.

• Arrangement of hospital admission

If the medical condition of the Insured is of such gravity as to require hospitalization, the servicing company will assist such Insured in the hospital admission.

• Monitoring of medical condition during and after hospitalization

The servicing company will monitor the Insured's medical condition during and after hospitalization, subject to any and all obligations in respect of confidentiality and relevant authorization.

• Medical translation service

The servicing company will arrange for the provision of medical translation to the Insured over the telephone. Where the servicing company uses an external service provider to provide the translation service, the quality of the translator cannot be guaranteed. The Servicing Company will however exercise reasonable care and diligence in selecting such service providers.

• Delivery of essential medicine

The Assistance Company will take charge of delivering the medicines outside the country of residence prescribed urgently by a doctor for the insured during the trip and which cannot be found in the place where he/she had travelled to or to be replaced by medicines that have a similar composition. The Assistance Company will not be responsible for the medicine's expenses.

• Inoculation and visa requirement information

Upon request from the Insured, the servicing company shall provide information concerning visa and inoculation requirements for foreign countries, as those requirements are specified from time to time in the most current edition of World Health Organization Publication "Vaccination Certificates Requirements and Health Advice for International Travel" (for inoculations) and the "ABC Guide to International Travel Information" (for visas).

• Lost luggage assistance

Upon request from the Insured, the servicing company will assist the Insured who has lost his/her luggage while traveling outside the Usual Country of Residence by referring the Insured to the appropriate authorities.

• Interpreter referral

Upon request from the Insured, the servicing company will provide the names, telephone numbers and, if possible and requested, hours of opening of interpreters' office in foreign countries. Although the servicing company shall make such referrals, it cannot guarantee the quality of the service provider and the final selection of a service provider shall be the decision of the Insured. The Servicing Company, however, will exercise care and diligence in selecting the service providers.

• Emergency traveling service assistance

The servicing company shall assist the Insured in making reservations for air ticket or hotel accommodation on an emergency basis when traveling overseas.

• Emergency interpreting assistance

The servicing company will arrange for the provision of interpreting assistance to the Insured over the telephone on an emergency basis.
